RE: Phoebe M. Lauru

Dear Miss Parlow:

I have your letter of May 1st, together with Mrs. Lauru's letter to me of April 29th and Mr. Francais' letter to Mrs. Lauru dated April 23rd. In accordance with telephone conversation with Mr. Francais this afternoon, he is willing to deliver the violin to you at his office on Thursday next, but before going there, we should and will deliver to you both copies of the consignment agreement dated January 28, 1952, between Mr. Francais and Mrs. Lauru. We will have the papers ready for you when you arrive here on Thursday.

Mr. Francais also mentioned an insurance appraisal, but it was necessary for us to mail this to Canada at the time we took additional insurance on the violin, and while we will endeavor to have this returned to us, I don't think it is relatively important in this case. At any rate, we will keep the violin insured until further notice.

Very truly yours,

H. M. Peterson
